The shooting range will be composed of 10 shooting lanes and athletes will shoot with air pressure biathlon rifles from the lying position on the standing target. Rifles are provided on each shooting lane and supervised and maintained by officials.
- Automatic timekeeping for all competitions will be provided with transponders.
- Detailed rules are available at: www.biathlonworld.com.

5. COMPETITION REGULATION

5.1 Sprint with Elimination

- The Sprint with Elimination event is composed of one qualification run and the final heats (quarterfinals, semi-finals and final).
- The starting positions will be determined by the results of the Sprint competition. In each heat 5 athletes compete against each other and the first 2 advance to the next round.
- If necessary to fill up the final heats, a lucky loser rule will be applied.

5.2 Relay Mixed Team

- In the Relay Mixed Team competition the first competitors from each team start simultaneously.
- Subsequent starts by other team members are completed by the incoming team member tagging the next team member in the relay hand-over zone.
- Each team ideally consists of 2 boys and 2 girls from different delegations. There is at least one female competitor in each team. The start sequence in the Relay Mixed Team is girl(s) first followed by boys

6. EQUIPMENT

Athletes are responsible for providing their own equipment, except the rifles. Biathlon rifles will be provided by the Organizer. The organizer will not allow any other biathlon rifles at the competition.
